LOST WEEKEND 2015 CHARDONNAY

"Two roads diverged in a wood, and I – I took the one less travelled by.
And that has made all the difference." – Robert Frost, The Road Not Taken.

The Hesketh range of white label wines represent the best of our home state, South Australia - one of the most celebrated and diverse growing regions in the world.

Grapes for these wines are grown only in premium sub regions of South Australia which are best suited to each wine style. The wines are then blended before bottling to a fresh, fruit driven style which is perfect for everyday drinking - or more salubrious occasions.

Background

The 2015 Lost Weekend Chardonnay is made in a bright and aromatic style which accentuates the inherent varietal tones of this noble grape.

Following harvest a small portion of the wine was aged in second and third fill French oak Barriques for three months, providing subtle notes of toast and vanilla.

The final blend is full and textural whilst still maintaining a beautiful freshness. While Lost Weekend is intended to be drunk in its youth it will also reward short term cellaring.

Tasting Notes

Colour: Golden straw

Aroma: Fragrant scents of honeydew melon and fresh peach. Seamlessly integrated French oak.

Palate: Elegant, restrained palate with plenty of limey acidity. Crisp notes of nectarine are prominent, followed by secondary tones of toast and brioche.

Food Match: Homemade, truffle infused, fettuccine Carbonara
