BACKGROUND

Our regional wines are a celebration of South Australia's pedigree cool climate growing regions and the varieties that thrive under those growing conditions. These wines are made without compromise, drawing on our exceptional fruit sources and the skills of our incredibly experienced winemaking team. The simple objective is the highest quality standards and exceptional value.

Whilst winemaking artefact plays a significant role in shaping these wines, the intent is fundamentally about purity and expression of site.

After picking on 24th March the wine was fermented in 2T open fermenters for 10 days and plunged twice daily before being barreled down to French oak barriques (15% new) for 8 months before bottling in March 2024.
